

GIPSA Official Designation Activities

WASHINGTON, D.C. (January 18, 2005) - USDA's Grain Inspection, Packers and Stockyards Administration (GIPSA) announces the following actions on designations to officially inspect and weigh grain in California.

- The California Department of Food and Agriculture (California) has asked GIPSA for a voluntary cancellation of their delegation and designation effective April 30, 2005. Accordingly, California's designation will cease effective April 30, 2005. GIPSA is seeking applicants to provide official services in California. Applications are due by February 18, 2005.
