

GIPSA Settles a Case Resulting in a $1,500 Civil Penalty

WASHINGTON, June 24, 2010 - The U.S. Department of Agriculture's Grain Inspection, Packers and Stockyards Administration's (GIPSA) enforcement rules provide a mechanism to quickly resolve violations of the Packers and Stockyards (P&S) Act. GIPSA may offer an alleged violator the option of waiving their right to a hearing and entering into a stipulation agreement to quickly resolve alleged violations.

GIPSA recently settled a case resulting in a $1,500 civil penalty.

4J Cattle Co., LLC and Randy Stewart, waived his right to a hearing, entered into a stipulation agreement, and paid a penalty of $1,500 after GIPSA found that he operated as a livestock dealer subject to the P&S Act without filing the required bond coverage.

The Packers and Stockyards Act is a fair trade practice and payment protection law that promotes fair and competitive marketing environments for the livestock, meat, and poultry industries.
